

Clockwork Solutions Attends Naval Logistics Conference

Austin, TX - November 20, 2000

Clockwork Solutions exhibited at the Naval Logistics Conference held in Norfolk, Virginia November 14 - 16, 2000. This conference was sponsored by the ASNE (American Society of Naval Engineers) and SOLE (The International Society of Logistics) and co-sponsored by the Deputy Chief of Naval Operations (Logistics) and U.S. Marine Corps Vice Deputy Chief of Staff for Installation and Logistics. Topics at the conference focused on technologies to support new and existing weapon systems, logistics reform, and life cycle logistics.

Clockwork Solutions demonstrated and exhibited results of DoD projects with the Army and Air Force and as well, displayed its insignia as a team member on the DD-21 Gold Team. Clockwork also demonstrated ENRiCO™ for power systems analysis.
