

Effective Performance Based Logistics (PBL) Management Workshop

Austin, TX

The IDGA Performance Based Logistics 2008 conference will be held in Alexandria, VA, April 28-May 1. It is a premier PBL event focused on key issues in servicing contracts, acquisitions, infrastructure and supply chain. Clockwork Solutions will exhibit and direct a workshop and case study demonstrating the application of supportability modeling and simulation, in support of “Effective PBL Management”. The workshop will cover such topics as:

- Proactive and efficient evaluation of PBA risks associated with O&M variability
- Risk identification and mitigation during proposal development and contract execution
- Third party evaluation of supportability risks between cooperative government and industry agreements

Clockwork Solutions representatives will be on hand to demonstrate sustainment capabilities and provide an in depth understanding of effective life cycle prediction and risk assessment solutions.

More information on this event can be found on our events page.

About Clockwork Solutions (www.clockwork-solutions.com)

Clockwork Solutions develops and markets advanced performance based modeling and simulation products and provides modeling support and consulting services. Clockwork is proud of the work it is doing across the defense services to improve supportability of systems through performance based modeling and forecasting. Clockwork Solutions’ proprietary modeling technology, SPAR™, uses unique Monte Carlo algorithms to build comprehensive, reliability-based predictive models of complex assets and their operational and logistical environments, such as a fleet of aircrafts, missile systems, a power plant and its distribution system, a group of chemical plants, etc. Clockwork Solutions’ customers include the US Army, the US Marine Corps, Lockheed Martin, Raytheon, Sikorsky Aircraft, EADS Astrium, the Israeli Defense Forces, GE, Chevron, ConocoPhillips, and many others. Clockwork Solutions, Inc. is headquartered in Austin, TX, with an R&D center and International operations headquarters in Israel. Clockwork Solutions is owned by Formula Vision (TASE: FVT).
