

Performance Based Logistics, Comprehensive Master Class

Austin, TX

Clockwork Solutions will join Raytheon and the DEI Group to present a workshop in the Performance Based Logistics track event of the Military Logistics Summit, University. Sean Connors, president of Clockwork Solutions will kick off the event with a session on “Moving from ‘Point’ to ‘Turn-key’ Solutions in the PBL Decision Support”. This track will prove to be most beneficial by providing decision makers with the discipline and understanding of the critical need to establish, monitor, and assess key performance metrics. Please join us for this informative session on Monday, September 10, 2007 from 8am-11am. If you are unable to attend and have questions you are welcomed to come by our exhibit booth at anytime during hours of operation September 11-12th.

Hope to see you there!

The Clockwork Team
